Sounds like a decent plan, but I think I'd start by moonlighting at it.

Remember, I was doing full time school, as well as full time work until June. I feel like I have so much free time now, that I'm actually looking for a girlfriend. That's unreal, because I LOVE my freedom, and my ability to live in a filthy house. Oh well. I also spent a ton of cash on videogames to kill time.

I'm going to start working on a piece of writing next week. I'll post whatever I can come up with. Perhaps I'll write a piece about the spiritual journey that was my first time in centre county. I went alone because I felt a little frazzled. It turned out being a wonderful few days.

Keep your eyes open for it.
