Thanks for the input everyone. Im really looking into the rafts because of the smaller waters around here. I just want a raft 2 people can stand in to fish. There's room in my garage to keep it and my friend has a smaller trailer that he will sell to me for a couple hundred dollars. As far as shuttling goes my friends and family have no problem driving another car with me so that is taken care of. All I need to do is make a decision on a raft and im set for the summer.

Thanks again
