StarvinMarvin, it is at the lower DHALO by the parking area where the gate is. Once you get to the stream after walking the path there is a big rock in the middle of the creek.

They do float stock the stream(without canoes of course) which spreads the fish out a tad bit but yeah holding water wise it isn't the best of streams, but again it's a small stocked trout fishery, not really asking for much. There's some decent holes as you go upstream, and around the old rr bridge up a ways. A good stream to visit if you don't live too far and you want to catch a few fish, but I wouldn't make a whole day of it.
