Very fond memories of Chauncey and his brother in law, George Aiken. When I was in high school, I fished and tied flies with George quite a bit, and fished the Paradise with he, Chauncey, and Marion Lively (Chauncey's beloved wife). A couple of months after a May trip, imagine my surprise and delight to find Chauncey's fly tying article in the magazine featuring a story about our time together fishing over tan caddis and craneflies at the Paradise. Both Chauncey and George were old school gentlemen.
