TFO warranty is no questions asked – return it with $25 and you get a new rod.

I broke a TiCr and when returned that model was discontinued. TFO called me and allowed me to select ANY model/size/wt rod as a warranty replacement. I had my new rod within 10 days of sending the original one in.

Also broke a couple Winston WTs – a male ferrule simply fell out and a female ferrule snapped while playing a fish. They waived the handling fee on the male ferrule and charged $50 on the female ferrule. The female repair was a new mid section for the rod. Both repairs took about 4 weeks.
