

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : Chauncy Lively

Re: Chauncy Lively

Author: : RLeeP

Date: : 2013/3/27 19:24:07

URL:

Not to pick nits, but I think the "Bill Tapply" you guys are remembering was actually named H.G. Tapply who wrote the Tap's Tips column for F&S. He was the father of William (Bill) Tapply who was first and foremost a fine mystery novelist and also wrote a number of fishing books and worked as an Editor at Large for some of the FF Magazines (Rod & Reel for one, IIRC.). H.G. has been dead for a long time. Bill passed away in 2009 of leukemia at 69. Way too soon..