Chaz, I disagree. It sounds to me more like the anglers should keep their hands off of the signs. This is one that FF'ers can't blame on bait anglers. Clearly, a FF'er or spin fisherman moved the signs.

I know that section and frankly I think it's a mistake to have a boundary where none recognizable exists. If it's based on a supposed property line, who did the survey? Who's the landowner? I think you understand my point.
