

Subject: : Tips and Tricks

Topic: : Casting to the other Side

Re: Casting to the other Side

Author: : bam

Date: : 2013/3/28 8:47:35

URL:

If you're in a boat, keep the wind to your back and cast to shore. Baitfish get pushed to shore and the fish feast. Before I FFed, some of my wildest days have been in strong wind. Enough bait will bring walleye into the shallows, even in midday sun. Even ambush fish like pike and bass will take advantage. Strong current or current breaks can do the same thing in a lake. Anything that will concentrate food in one area.