Chaz,

I'll pay for a guide trip for you if you'll do it. Junction pool on the Beaverkill down through the no kill section. Second week of May. People will try to snag you and hurl insults / rocks at you. It is an unwritten rule that you don't take boats on that river. I think it has something to do with respecting tradition on that watershed. You can get away with it in the lower because it larger and hardly any anglers. I'll bet money on it that you don't find a guide willing to entertain that idea.
