Mike,

I can't believe I would have to explain the mindless acts of people playing pranks to mess with or get people in trouble.

Fish,

Being you were there I believe it and the people that tried to illegally extend a Special Reg area should be punished. My post in general was to point out my frustration of the divisional line, we and the PFBC have created, between bait and fly anglers. It bothers me greatly when a person post here, not only as an individual but also as a rep. of the PFBC and makes comments that further highlights and deepens that line. I appreciate Mike's posts on many of the experiments and findings he encounters doing his work as a PFBC officer. I'm disappointed by his occasional comments about FFerman and the feelings he projects on them as an individual.

A lot of assuming went on in that post, right or wrong.
