Ive been creeping on the forum since last fall. My brother does alot of fly fishing on Codorus Creek outside Hanover in a Trout Fishing Club. He took me a few times last fall. I am know hooked!!! The moment i hooked my first fish on a fly rod...a 16 inch Wild Brown...sealed the deal!! Lol. This week i finally purchased my gear. Got a 8'6 White River combo from Cabelas. Bought my Caddis Chest waders and Caddis boots. All that for under $300! I felt like a kid at Xmas when it all got delivered the past 2 days. I am so ready to hit the stream tomorrow with my brother. Ive learned a good bit reading your posts. Really wanna get up in the Mtns of Central Pa and fish. Im originally from Warren County Pa and have lived in Hanover for 27 years. I miss fishing the streams up there in the Allegheny National Forest. I try to go back every couple of years to fish. Ive done most of my fishing up around Caledonia above Gettysburg and Fairfield. I dont know why ive waited till i was 43 to start doing this. But i see alot of fly fishing to come in the future!!! You guys have a great forum here!! Keep it up!
