A few years back, I'm standing there talking to Walt about long casts with WF versus DT and which keeps more line in the air without collapse. 2 guys from NYC stroll in and yell out "Hey, where's a good place to catch trout around here?" Dennis looks up from his vice and says "In the fking water." Needless to say, those guys walked out.

Thats why dennis and i get along as shop owners..

kray do you float the lower BK too. ? maybe some time when I am out we can do a float..
