Ugh, why do I not find that hard to believe? I've painted my toons to look like cans of Iron City Beer.

I just remembered that we may have a gentleman named Dick from Scranton join us. He just got a Scadden 2 man McKenzie Drifter. I've gotten a PM from someone on here that just got a pontoon and I'm trying to get them to join in. I'm also working on gettin Mr. McWilliams to pry his feet loose from the WB and try the EB and main stem. Ordered 3 dozen bubble back emergers from Dennis so I'll apologize in advance for out fishing everyone. That fly has worked from the Hendrickson hatch up there to the Tully during caddis hatches and 6 fish on 7 casts at Paradise during the sulphur hatch. It just looks "buggy".

It's been windy this spring and I hope that changes for the better while we are there. Flows are low again so let the rain dance begin.

Just found 3 pics on camera from last spring..... The dog actually "points" when he sees rises! Pretty funny to see.
