Fished approx 11am til 4pm. A bit after noon the bwo started, never a super heavy hatch, but a steady hatch that lasted several hours. The wind was blowing them around the water, the fish were sipping them off the top. Managed 5 to hand, hooked and lost another half dz, including one that broke my tippet when I tried to keep him from heading under a log jam. Missed too many to count. Action all tHe time. A great day on Spring.
