Stockie Slam...Well, Sort Of.

Had Easter dinner with my wife's family last night, so I thought I'd try to get out today and get my fill of stockies for the year. Also, I LOVE fishing in the rain. I went to a local ATW that between the PFBC and various clubs gets all three species stocked...thought it would be cool to try for the "Stockie Slam," all from the same stream.

Landed about dozen...all were ugly Brookies, except for one ugly Bow and one well, not so ugly Brown...Darn wild Browns...messing up my "Stocker Slam!" I think I can live with it though 😊
