People pull in front of me when I'm driving, they drive 25mph in a 45mph speed zone, they take a parking spot that I was waiting for, they have 50 items in a 15 or less checkout lane at the store, & it goes on & on & on. So why does it surprise us when someones fishes too close to us?

Word. You forgot people going through the drive-thru at a bank with no account numbers, no slips filled out, 4 transactions, a few grand in cash, and a coin order.
