Although the OP was about a C&R FFO section, some of the comments about fishing in ATW Opening Day are rendered void by now. I drove over two ATW on the way home tonight. One had 17 vehicles Saturday morning at 7:00AM and the other had more than that. Today, just three days later, there were ZERO vehicles at both. I suspect that having the stream to yourself would provide enough space. One would only have themselves to argue with 😞
