Hello all!

Im reasonably new to fly fishing and not from the lehigh valley area.(indiana county) I am determined to get the hang of this sport and will be visiting the Little Lehigh after work everyday until I feel confident in my skills. My question to you fine folks is who wants to join me. I would enjoy picking your brains on the stream or just watch and learn.

Regardless, if anyone would like to meet up, i usually park at the heritage fly shop and go from there. I WILL fool these fish, its just a matter of how long it takes...
