

Subject: : Warm Water & Salt Water Fly-Fishing

Topic: : Shad fishing

Re: Shad fishing

Author: : Mike

Date: : 2013/4/5 7:37:54

URL:

American shad are already in the Delaware at least from Easton down, but probably as far upstream by now as the Delaware Water Gap. The first electrofishing run at Raubsville produced a very low 3 per hour late last week, but the survey did indicate that the fish are there. Likewise, they should now be in the Schuylkill. With the cold water temps it just means that they are unlikely to hit.