
Subject: : Fly Tying

Topic: : crane fly larva

crane fly larva

Author: : mike_richardson

Date: : 2013/4/5 8:27:45

URL:

Just played around with these this morning before work. I think they should sink rather fast with the double lead wrapped body and tung head.

Besides walts worm, what do you do to mimic these guys?

I tied them with the chartreuse under body thread and wanted to try them with somewhat of a hot spot. I may try some with a half hitch to hold the ribbing down, and tie in some black.

Attach file:

 2013-04-05_08-20-45_216.jpg (107.29 KB)

