

Subject: : Beginner Forum

Topic: : chewing snuff...

Re: chewing snuff...

Author: : osprey

Date: : 2013/4/6 5:55:47

URL:

This sounds gross but try it.....when the carpenter ants show up , which should be soon , take a fair sized specimen and squish it between your fingers.....smells alot like Skoal wintergreen. The old "method" of spitting on your bait has been around as long as i remember but i'm not sure where it originated.