Is this the group that has the "traveling rod" that gets passed to a selected member? If it is, I went to the big dinner / auction a few times in the 80's. The last one I attended with my fly fishing girlfriend. I was asked not to return because I had brought a woman to their banquet. So.....I won't be supporting that mindset.

Just show up with Kramer this time.....bringing a woman won't seem so bad to them in comparison 😬
