

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : Giant tiger trout in PA? Who'd a thunk it?

Re: Giant tiger trout in PA? Who'd a thunk it?

Author: : Chaz

Date: : 2013/4/6 12:09:01

URL:

For those that care browns tigers and splake have ll been found going through the ladder at Fairmount dam in Philly. They have to be stocked from private clubs and hatcheries.

As for the Susquehanna River the lower river has plenty of trout streams in the lower reaches including some near Marysville so tey could have come from nearby. As to the rest of the river system, nearly all the tribs are trout streams.