I find it is much cheaper to have a little brother who lives on a trout stream.

I've thought about owning one and even looked into it, but with all the bills and the worries that go along with cabin ownership including break-ins, and the fact that I wouldn't be able to use it more than maybe 10 weekends a year and maybe one or two weeks, we decided against it. Hotels and cabin rentals are cheaper.

Then when my little brother bought a place on a trout stream...I bought a farm that has everything I need cept for a trout stream. 😊
