It's always been a dream of mine to own a cabin along a fine trout stream. Step out the back door and you're right on the stream. Sit on the deck with a cold one and watch the trout rise. Something about an hour or two from home, some where to get away but not too far. I'd like to hear from some cabinowners to hear what it's REALLY like. I could only imagine the up keep and work weekends, plus the expense. Is it worth it in the end?

Are you kidding me? Yes, it's worth it.
