Yes, that's what they should look like. Some cameras have settings to add dynamism to their pictures, really bringing out certain colors (as definitely happened with the pictures in RCFetter's link). So, at best, they really didn't use photoshop and are ignorant of how their camera works. At worst they don't know what they are talking about. Or I don't! Dun dun DUUUUN

The second and 4th pictures from that site are probably untouched
