

Subject: : Fly Tying

Topic: : Another Question

Re: Another Question

Author: : Ebrant10

Date: : 2013/4/12 12:03:01

URL:

If you have any dry fly necks, the feathers at the back that are large work well for this, otherwise look at bugger packs. I tie mine in at the rear of the hook using the tip of the feather. stroke all fibers down toward the base of the feather but not the tip, tie in and wrap forward. This is how Al and Gretchen beaty tie their buggers.

Evan