

Subject: : Fly Fishing Locations

Topic: : Pine/Kettle creek magic?

Re: Pine/Kettle creek magic?

Author: : Troy

Date: : 2013/4/12 12:45:19

URL:

I make one trip up there every year. I camp right along Pine Creek and I bet you I fished it less than 5 times. I have been going for about 10 years. The magic for me is the scenery and the trips. You get a chance to be out in the wilderness pursuing wild trout. It doesn't get any better than that for me. I agree with the statement about Pine Creek, but that area has a lot more to offer.