I love the loomis NRX for chucking sinking lines with half of a chicken on the end

Those hideous cannons are on sale right now for 25-50% off. Do you put 950 grain line on 6wt nrx to load it for 30 foot cast? Lol. Seriously though, it excels at tossing line distance.

I haven't fished one for trout but if you want distance and accuracy when casting a chicken this is the rod to get .
