

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : First good numbers day of the year

Re: First good numbers day of the year

Author: : Gorosaurus

Date: : 2013/4/16 23:48:22

URL:

First good number day of my PA career!

I have caught good numbers before, but my definition of good would be 5-7.

Today I tried to get to Clarks Creek to enjoy the fresh stocking. Didn't make it out until noon. However.. as I expected, the dumping holes were over-filled with spinners. I ended up fishing an empty section that I hadn't had luck in during past expeditions - I honestly didn't think wild fish were even there.

Wow, was I wrong! I brought at least 12 to hand today, and was really close on a bunch of others. Had two very decent fish fight and win. 50% of my catch was clearly wild, and an additional 30% was long-term holdover.

Tan caddis was the ticket! The ugly nymphs I have tied were doing pretty well also!

My adventures today reminded me of how much fun it is to fish in Idaho! Find some good riffles, cast in/near them, and watch tons of fish go for your dry!