

Subject: : Fly Fishing Locations

Topic: : Penns Creek?

Re: Penns Creek?

Author: : McSneek

Date: : 2013/4/17 16:19:53

URL:

Far and away my favorite stream. Hope for cloudy weather. Don't be afraid to nymph fast water. Assorted sizes of pheasant tails, with or without beads should produce. I like a big stonefly nymph for an anchor fly with a smaller pt or something similar dropped off it.

Last half hour or so of daylight can be really awesome although maybe not quite as much at the end of this month as later in the spring.

pccray's advise is solid.