Funny

Lots of opinions and bashing of something that the doubters have 0 personal experience

Yes imported blank

(Does that even matter anymore? The imports consistently out perform their US counterparts)

But the rest of the rod (blueprinting, modifying, and build) is done by one of the best line/ rod builders in the industry...and each one done in the USA

Individually blueprinted and built to your specs

Ya, they are opinions. Everyone is allowed to have one.
