

Subject: : Fly Tying

Topic: : Grannom Larvae

Re: Grannom Larvae

Author: : ryguyfi

Date: : 2013/4/20 19:50:37

URL:

Nice fly! I did well today swinging a simple partridge and peacock during the grannoms even though the bugs didn't pop today due to the cold.

Depending on temps the grannom adults usually start having fish rise to them starting around noon. The few hours before then are prime for patterns like the one above and swung wets.