

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : Wind

Re: Wind

Author: : PatrickC

Date: : 2013/4/20 22:02:08

URL:

Instead of casting into the wind, try turning around (if that makes it easier for you to visualize), cast with the wind and then lay your back cast down instead of your forward cast. I think the hardest thing I encounter when coaching less experienced casters is that the forward cast and back cast are really the same cast. For some folks I have found it helpful to have them lay the back cast down in windy conditions and it seems to click for them. If that makes any sense 😊