
Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : Value of C & R

Re: Value of C & R

Author: : afishinado

Date: : 2013/4/22 8:13:42

URL:

The most reliable way to ID a fish is to study the spot pattern on it. The spots are like our fingerprints, which are unique to each individual.

The fish below are photographed at different angles, but if you look closely, the spot pattern for the fish in both pics match up. Same fish.

Attach file:

 Spot the Spots.jpg (211.23 KB)

