Keep the ideas coming guys,I appreciate all views and ideas.
I have been using a vest for maybe 50 yrs,can't remember not wearing one and I'm very set in my ways with it.That will be the hardest part with a change,how to stow the stuff and know where it is when I need it.But change I must as it is getting too tiring in my "golden" years.Someone said maybe I carry too much unneeded weight and that is something I must look at first,then go from there.
Again thanks to all for all views and ideas!
