This is a weird thread...A dynamite stream report, the stream's dead, Chaz singing the praises of Brownies...I don't know what to believe!

Simple really; the stocked water is loaded with fish, the rest is barren. Just like Hickory Run.

Stocked section fished out, wild trout doing fine. Couldn't buy a brookie though.

As for Hickory Run, loads of brookies above the road, below the sewer plant, it's just not productive.
