is there any size requirements on knives? I have heard that if its the size of your palm it ok but is that really true. I to like to carry a knife when I fish in some areas of the city of brotherly love and have had an encounter where I was held up by what I assumed was a homeless guy. another angler helped me out by standing up for me. that being said I now carry a large knife with me it about 8 inches but the blade is 5. large knife no spring. its not concealed nor. I keep it in a sheath on my belt.

sometimes I feel a little like crocodile Dundee. haha
