

Subject: : Fly Fishing Locations

Topic: : Risers on the Brodheads??

Re: Risers on the Brodheads??

Author: : PALongbow

Date: : 2013/4/26 8:20:33

URL:

Water temperature and on/off hatches. Fishing Creek in Columbia County is a good example. The fish are rising in the lower part of the stream but the upper part is not seeing much surface action. Water is about 5-7 degrees warmer downstream in the lower part of the stream where the fish are rising. Hatches are on and off too due to cold and high water which makes things a challenge. Maybe this is what you are experiencing??

Ron