

Subject: : Warm Water & Salt Water Fly-Fishing

Topic: : Carp Carp and Carp!

Re: Carp Carp and Carp!

Author: : boychick

Date: : 2013/4/30 8:05:09

URL:

Pitt,

I'm not big on jewelry; I have been concerned I'd get an unwanted ear ring... I've had a few close calls! I guess its all part of learning. No pain, no gain... right? I went out on the Grand yesterday. The water was stained and up a bit from the rain the night before, but I had a few grabs. Not bad for two hours of fishing. I also saw a beaver swimming too. When he saw me he gave a loud tail slap and dove under the surface. I knew there were beaver on this river because I've seen the chewed up trees in the flood plain, but this is the first I've seen.

Dub,

Spoiled, wow! I think I've had to chase just most of the carp I've ever caught. The carp is not a fish you can land easily without a bit of a chase. Still lots of fun.