Naw, you guys go scout it out. I'll stop in SC to say hi to Steve. Check out the short skirts on I81, Do a visual once over on the lower river, maybe stop by Lydia's for a beer. (You know they have GARLIC wings!) I'm not gonna hold you guys up. I'm pretty happy just to wade fish the first evening. I'll have a cold one ready for you guys when you get done floating. This week is gonna be awesome! I even put the right size line on the rods and everything!
