skybay, NickR or anyone else that was in need of a room..... Ines just called me. They had someone cancel a reservation and she will hold it for us (24-48 hours). If nobody calls to book, it's going back on the auction block.

I just found out who's booked in the second half of the motel (not counting PAFF guys). Rob from "Rob's realistic flies"... Big Frank and another guide that's also a hoot. Someone needs to keep a video rolling at all times.....should be some hilarious footage.
