Good to hear. Bass fishing hasn't been gangbusters (for me at least) the last few years but there are still stellar days to be had and many large fish if you're willing to look for 'em.

Note: If you haven't met Tim, he makes fish look small - that's a heckuva nice bass and larger than it appears. 😊

Yup. I'd judge that fish to be well north of 10lbs! Great job!
