

Subject: : Beginner Forum

Topic: : Bass Fly Fishing

Re: Bass Fly Fishing

Author: : henrydavid

Date: : 2013/5/6 18:30:13

URL:

I've had the best success for bass with poppers when the topwater action is on. Streamers and wooly buggers work too. When the weather warms up more a cricket imitation (joe's hopper) can be deadly.

It's probably too early to rely on much topwater action just yet but be ready for it, when it's on it's a blast. Start by casting to the edges of cover, let it sit, then short pops.