Just so everybody knows, YoughnessMonster shows up to our second session and tells us...."Just so you guys know, every time I come to get footage of the competitors they seem to get skunked. So just tell me to leave if you want." Phil immediately hooked and landed the biggest fish of the competition, but then we did not catch another fish until he freaking left. If the footage of Phil's fish does not make the show it is Yough's fault. 😞
