

Subject: : Conservation

Topic: : Little Lehigh/Jordan creek dam removals

Re: Little Lehigh/Jordan creek dam removals

Author: : troutwilleatflies

Date: : 2013/5/8 22:01:35

URL:

This won't hurt that's for sure, but it is n't going to be the real answer to the real problem. The real problem is runoff and sewerage overflow on the LL, until they address that the stream will continue to degrade..

The Jordan is a lost cause and not a trout stream. Trout can't survive the summer there most years on the upper reaches and the lower stream must be polluted cause there is very little evidence of life there compared to the past.