In the immediate area you have Codorus Creek (wild browns) and Lake Marburg in Codorus State Park. I was just at Marburg a few days ago and large bluegills are everywhere close to shore and eager to eat flies. Up Rt 94 about 30 minutes - you can hit Yellow Breeches. As a beginner, you may want to skip Codorus Creek as I consider it a tough stream to fish. Breeches is much easier and more friendly to beginners.

If it were me, I'd go back to Marburg and chase the 'gills.
