Headed down to cape henlopen in two weeks.

Taking multiple surf rods as that is what I mostly do down there but I'll be taking a kayak as well to hit the bayside north of the fishing pier. gonna have to borrow the old man's fly rod though as I'm using a 6'6" as my only fly rod right now.

I'll post up results if I get anything good on the fly. Headed down may 31 for the weekend.
