Tiemco dry magic and frogs fanny applied after TDM is applied is the best combo there is period end of story.

When you close your mind, you stop learning...

Ryan you make a good solid point. I should have kept that comment to myself but I haven't tried anything better and have tried a lot of floatants. Most of the flies I use have CDC or snowshoe hair and the tiemco stuff put on the fly first and then frog fanny refresher is tough to beat in my opinion.
