Actually, I made an excellent call. If the young man wasn't f'n up my mojo, I would have had my best day ever in 25 years of fishing up there. 20" brown on the first cast, hooked/lost 3 more fish in the next 1/4 mile. My fishing time was reduced to 2 hours or less for the entire day and I hooked 15 fish, landed 9. One was a brown that was in the 5lb class that threw the MB nymph on the 3rd jump. I spent most of the day trying to get him hooked up. Without him, I'm guessing I could have had the day of a lifetime.

That Sulphur hatch on Spring is pretty sick though.
